THE PRESIDENT

Jerusalem, August 27, 2025

Your Excellency,

It is with profound sadness that I learned of the devastating fire that destroyed the House of Democracy yesterday. This building was more than a place of meeting, debate, and governance, but stood as a symbol of your nation's commitment to democratic values and representative self-government.

I salute your brave first responders, who stifled the blaze and prevented the damage from spreading further. I am greatly relieved that there was no loss of life.

I am confident that your nation will respond to this challenge with its customary resilience, courage, and purpose. I send my sincere wishes for the swift and full rebuilding of this inspirational structure.

Sincerely,

and Shalom!

Isaac Herzog
President of the State of Israel
